As a Senior Project Manager with Rippe Associates, Jill has worked on and led foodservice design projects in a variety of industries: from casinos and hotels to higher education, corporate, healthcare and government. She supervises all Revit and AutoCAD work for her projects, and collaborates closely with the owner, operator, designers and contractors from early stages of project vision to final completion. Since joining Rippe in 1996, Jill has gained extensive foodservice design and industry knowledge and flourishes at problem solving and finding solutions, bringing each project to successful completion.
